To Whom it May Concern:

I do not agree with this agreement.

You have a company that has done everything in its power to control the PC market. The government has found them in violation of the law two prior times and has come to an "agreement" with them. The company has willfully and blatantly violated both of those agreements. So we are going to draw up another similar agreement?

This settlement seems to be nothing more than a slap on the wrist. To say such treatment is patriotic during these times is garbage. Seems to me, the patriotic thing to do would be to obey the law, not discard it when convenient to do so.

Thank you for your time.
